SPEAKERS

Bishop Dr. David Oginde, PhD, EBS, FCS

Chairperson of the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission

Bishop Dr. David Oginde is the Chairperson of the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), having been appointed on 29th April, 2023 and assumed office on the 9th of May, 2023. He holds a PhD in Organisational Leadership from Regent University USA, a Master of Arts in Leadership from PAC University, and a Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Nairobi. Bishop Oginde is the immediate former Presiding Bishop of Christ Is The Answer Ministries (CITAM), where he led several organisational transformation initiatives placing CITAM as a cutting-edge institution. He is currently the University Council Chairman of the Mama Ngina University College (MNUC). He is also the Chairman of the Evangelical Alliance of Kenya (EAK), and the Vice-Chair of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa (AEA). Dr. Oginde is a renowned and distinguished leader with specialization in leadership and governance. He has published several books and written articles in various leadership journals and is the founder of The Catalead Associates

Zubeidah Kananu

President of the Kenya Editors Guild

Zubeida Kananu currently serves as President of the Kenya Editors Guild. She is an accomplished Kenyan broadcast journalist, news anchor, and program editor with over 18 years of experience in media leadership, editorial strategy, and public-interest journalism. Throughout the years, she has reported from the frontlines of Kenya's most defining political and social events, including general elections, constitutional referendums, and state funerals. She has moderated nationally televised debates and hosted governance-focused shows that give voice to ordinary Kenyans. Her interviews with global and regional leaders, among them President William Ruto, President Yoweri Museveni, Jakaya Kikwete, Salva Kiir, Volodymyr Zelensky, and Kenneth Kaunda, have shaped important public conversations on leadership and policy.

Paul Wafula

President, Financial Journalists Society of Kenya

Paul Wafula is an award-winning financial investigative journalist and President of the Financial Journalists Society of Kenya (FJSK). A former Lead Editor of the Business Daily and Business Editor of the Daily Nation, he has published in The Times and The Guardian. He was Founding Managing Editor of DeFrontera Media, an international non-profit newsroom specialising in investigative reporting on health, climate change and follow-the-money stories. He has broken some of Kenya's biggest stories, including the Covid millionaires scandal, the Eurobond scam, the flawed SGR contract and the "river of poison" exposé, which shaped how Kenya manages its effluents. A certified public accountant with a Bachelor's degree in Communication and Media Technology from Maseno University, Wafula is a recipient of the David Astor Award, which took him to The Times in London and to amaBhungane, the Mail & Guardian Centre for Investigative Journalism, in South Africa.

Mr. Paschal K. Mweu, OGW

Director, Ethics and Leadership, Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission

Paschal Keli Mweu is the Director, Ethics and Leadership at the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC). He was appointed to the position on 9th February, 2026. Prior to this appointment, Mr. Mweu was the Director, Investigations. He holds a Master's Degree in Governance & Ethics and a Bachelor's degree in Philosophy. Mr. Mweu joined the Commission in October 2006 as a Forensic Investigator at the Commission's Preliminary Investigations Division and was later in August 2014 appointed the Assistant Director, Forensic Investigations. He has over 28 years' experience in Law Enforcement. Before joining the Commission, he served in the Directorate of Criminal Investigations (DCI) as a Detective in the Investigations Branch at DCI Headquarters, DCI Urban- Mombasa, DCI- Buruburu, DCI- Marakwet, DCI- Pangani and DCI- Parklands. Due to his distinguished career and outstanding service to the Nation, he was on the 12th December 2022 awarded and conferred with the Order of Grand Warrior of Kenya (OGW) by the State.
